

The Institute for Continuing Legal Education presents:

Advanced Negotiation and Dispute Resolution Institute (ANDRI)

March 22, 2007

Plymouth, Michigan

Free Attendance for Judges

You are invited to ICLE's 6th ANDR Institute, March 22, 2007, cosponsored by the ADR Section of the State Bar and the State Court Administrative Office, Office of Dispute Resolution. Sitting circuit, probate and family division judges attend free! Register today at www.icle.org/ANDR or by calling ICLE at 877-229-4350.

Eight hours of advanced mediation credit, four separate tracks from which to choose (judicial, negotiation, mediation, and arbitration), and dozens of topics are just some of the highlights of this annual ADR program. ANDRI offers you a unique opportunity to interact with other judges from around the state and mediators and litigators outside of contested matters.

Many topics are relevant to improving skills in holding effective settlement conferences.

Register today! www.icle.org/ANDR or 877-229-4350.
